

Duke Law School's Health Care Planning Project

Free legal assistance for lower-income North Carolina residents to prepare advance planning documents

Under the supervision of licensed attorneys, Duke Law student volunteers meet with clients over video or phone to prepare important legal documents.

Free services include:

Power of Attorney (POA)

A document where you give a trusted person the power to handle your affairs on your behalf. The person you name can handle your personal and financial business, such as writing checks, paying bills or signing papers.

Health Care Power of Attorney (HCPOA)

A document where you give a trusted person the power to make decisions about your medical care when you are unable to make or communicate those decisions.

Advance Directive (Living Will)

A document where you express your desire for a “natural death” and give some directions about end-of-life care.
